SJC Capstone Project - JJI

Kevin Morse and Michelle
McIntosh-Peters

Brainstorming Session

- Original idea
 - Update the seminar series

- Challenges we faced
 - Administration already assessing and changing seminars.

Our JJI Experience

→ We have learned to:

- Be intentional
- Reflect
- Listen to other perspectives
- Share our experiences
- "Sharpen the axe"

*So, what do we do?
Our answer was

SJC Parmenie Walk

Who will participate?

- SJC Faculty

When?

- Once a semester
- After faculty meeting

Purpose?

- To reflect on our successes and challenges.
- To hear from peers who we may not normally interact with.

How will we get started?

- Introduce and explain the activity during faculty retreat.
- Randomize the pairs to avoid teachers in the same department.

Conclusion

- We are grateful for the time spent with each of you over the last two years.
- We understand the importance of Lay people in the Lasallian community.
- We must be reflective and intentional in inviting others on their vocational journey.
