FOREWORD

- This number 27 of Lasalliana is the second of three which will be issued in 1993.

It comes out whilst the Brothers Capitulants are here for the 42nd General Chapter, so we should like to greet them all and hand them this copy as a souvenir and as a mark of respect.

- The issue is varied in its themes and its authors.

We should like to mention especially one of the latter, the late Brother Charles Gatt, who died a few months ago. A friend sent an article of his with the request that it might appear in Lasalliana. We do this willingly and in respect not only to his memory but to his apostolic zeal for his students and his lay teaching colleagues.

- We have received numerous contributions, for which we are most grateful. They show interest and kindness on the part of their authors.

But do not forget that the pages of Lasalliana are available to every member of the Lasallian Family, which means that no one is excluded from the invitation to share in our publication his or her ideas on any Lasallian apostolic or educational endeavour.

- REPRINTS OF LASALLIANA.

We are honoured when we find selections from Lasalliana, either in extract or in full, in other magazines and books.

However it does frankly seem a little strange to us when no mention is made of their origin, though admittedly sometimes the author at least is mentioned. We should like to point out that extracts or reprints taken from LASALLIANA should always have a clear reference both to the number of the issue and of the particular leaflet within the folder from which it is "borrowed".

We are not too pleased either that certain "anthologies" have been produced of our articles from a variety of our issues without permission and without even acknowledgement from where the material has come.

Brother José María Valladolid,
Editor of LASALLIANA
