INTRODUCTION

- This number 33 of LASALLIANA is the second in the series of three for 1995.
- In the last quarter, in addition to number 34, we hope to be able to offer you another supplement which deals with the theme "The prayer of the Brother today" in keeping with the YEAR OF PRAYER. Several Brothers from various areas of the Institute were asked to work on this project and we hope that it will be an aid for you in your reflection and prayer renewal since we have all been asked to do this by the voice of the 42nd General Chapter of 1993.

Even though LASALLIANA is aimed primarily at the Brothers as I was preparing it I found myself thinking about all the members of the Lasallian Family and in a special way about our lay colleagues who share the Mission of the Institute with us.

It would be great if Districts could somehow facilitate the distribution of this publication to them. This would help them to know the Institute better since they are collaborators with it and share in its mission of Christian educators.

To have copies of LASALLIANA not only in the Brothers reading rooms but also in all our lay teachers reading rooms would not be out of place at all.

- It would also be a source of enrichment if these same lay colleagues decided to express their points of view concerning present challenges that affect them: their work, apostolic commitment, the shared mission, the spirituality of the Christian educator, the dimensions of their shared responsibility, pedagogical renewal, the Lasallian Family, knowledge of the Founder, etc., etc.

Clearly for this to happen someone would have to invite them directly, such as the person in charge of the apostolate or some other animator...the pages of LASALLIANA are always open for their contributions.

- For some time now the number of contributions to LASALLIANA has been on the increase and this is seen as a good sign of the interest it has sparked. Because of this it is not possible to publish all the contributions as quickly as we would like. Nevertheless, everything submitted will eventually appear and we would not want this delay to dissuade spontaneous contributors from sending their work. This is one way to share the mission and the apostolate.

Fraternally in La Salle,

Brother José María Valladolid
Director of LASALLIANA
